Donations are limited to $5,000 per person and a "person" by Louisiana law is an individual (husband can be one individual, wife another individual, and separate checks should be used), a corporation, a political committee, a partnership, or an LLC. The Louisiana Ethics Board has issued an advisory opinion that single member LLCs and their owner are subject to a single limit. The same opinion stated that S-corporations that are 100% owned by one individual are subject to the same limit. We are required to use our best efforts to ensure that individuals and their related entities do not exceed the limits. State law requires us to use our best efforts to collect and report the name and mailing address of individuals who donate. Donations are not tax deductible
